

Ms Linn Engvall

Second Secretary, Responsible Business (CSR), Embassy of Sweden in China

Ms Linn Engvall is a career diplomat who has been based at the Embassy of Sweden in Beijing since 2022. Ms Engvall leads the work of the Embassy's Centre for Corporate Social Responsibility, which promotes sustainable business practices in China. Ms Engvall has a business background and a master's degree in Business and Development Studies from Copenhagen Business School. She studied mandarin at Fudan University in Shanghai in 2012. In previous roles, including at UNDP, Ms. Engvall explored the potential of businesses to contribute to Agenda 2030 through sustainable business practices.